

SOURCES OF SUPPORT

The MCDOA receives financial and in-kind support from federal HCCBG funds, Martin County, Martin County Council on Aging, the United Way, individuals, corporations, churches and other religious organizations, civic groups, grants from foundations and governmental programs serving older adults and from fund raising efforts conducted throughout the year. Please see our annual report for details.